

I feel that Indiana's Telephone Privacy law is adequate and that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen the effect of this law. I was receiving at least 4 to 5 telemarketing calls per day and since I have been on this program I have received none that I know about. I am very happy with this law and do not want it changed. Thank you.